

CBC 2014-2020

SOUTH-EAST FINLAND - RUSSIA

KS1675 BioCom Project

South-East Finland – Russia CBC 2014-2020 Programme

Ekaterina Vorobyeva, Manager of international projects, IEEP - Branch of FSAC VIM

Andrei Erk, Head of Department, IEEP - Branch of FSAC VIM

Larisa Smirnova, Government Agency of the Leningrad Region

«Center for energy saving and energy efficiency of the Leningrad Region»

Basic information

Name of the project: Russian-Finnish Bioeconomy Competence Centre - BioCom

Project ID: KS1675

LP – IEEP-branch VIM, PP – XAMK, PP - «Center for energy saving and energy efficiency of the Leningrad Region»

Country and the region of the Lead partner: Russia, City of St-Petersburg

Priority: 2. Innovative, skilled and well-educated area

Thematic objective: Support to education, research, technological development and innovation

Duration in months: 24

Financing: total costs - 520716 € , programme financing - 416573 €; 80,00 % of total financing

Overall objective of the project

To increase the level of education among young and elderly people and to guarantee skilled workforce.

Specific objective of the project

To introduce and promote the BioEconomy concept and approaches for agricultural industry in neighboring border territories of Finland and Russia through the complex of capacity building actions and practical showcases for the local actors in agrisector.

Main project outputs

1. A Russian-Finnish BioEconomy Competence Centre on energy- and eco-efficient agricultural production
2. 2 testing courses developed and implemented at the Centre
3. Over 400 people involved in Project public events and capacity building actions
4. Inspections of energy performance of 2 RU and 2 FI farms; development of system of common checking indicators for RU and FIN agri-energy experts based on the results of inspections
5. Concept of a Demo Zone of energy efficient agricultural production for Leningrad Oblast
6. A set of energy efficient equipment for the Centre

Equipment for training and classes of the Center

Plans for the next program period

